ABOUT RANCAMAYA GOLF ESTATE

Commencement on Rancamaya Golf Estate started in 1993 based on a master plan by the renowned John Chapman of Chapman Land Planning. Today it is home to Bogor's most desirable residences and an award winning golf course designed by the distinguished international course designer Ted Robinson, who incorporated natural beauty with challenge in the form of extraordinary course contours. Rancamaya Golf Estate's unique range of private villas and townhouses are built in thoughtfully designed neighbourhoods each with their own character. Currently 400 hectares of the estate's over 700 hectares have been developed. Development of the estate continues but is mindful of the environment with a commitment to low building density evoking feelings of space and tranquillity. The 25 clusters that currently comprise the Rancamaya Golf Estate are complemented by a prestigious Golf and Country Club and an internationally certified preschool and elementary school "Highscope." Inspired by the majesty of nature, incredible views, wonderful amenities and an exclusive location, the community offers an unmatched way of life for its residents.
